Driving Instructions to Northwestern University

Driving to Evanston from O’Hare International Airport

Follow outbound traffic to get on the Tri-State Tollway (I-294) north and follow the “To Milwaukee” signs.

Exit at Dempster east.

Travel east approximately 10 miles to reach Evanston. At Ridge Ave. take a Left.

Go North to Church St., turn Right. Take Church St. all the way to the lake and Sheridan Rd.

Driving to Evanston from Midway Airport

Turn left out of the airport to go north on Cicero Avenue.

Travel north for two miles to get on the Stevenson Expressway.

Take the Stevenson Expressway (I-55) to Lake Shore Drive northbound.

Take Lake Shore Drive north through downtown Chicago.

From here refer to the “From Chicago” directions below.

Driving to Evanston from Chicago

Take Lake Shore Drive north through downtown Chicago and continue until Lake Shore Drive ends. You will need to be in the right two lanes.

Lake Shore Drive ends at the Sheridan Road and Hollywood Avenue intersection, turn right to go north on Sheridan.

Continue north on Sheridan road through Chicago into Evanston. Sheridan Road makes several right-hand turns as it heads north to Evanston.

Follow Sheridan road north to the Northwestern Campus. The first campus building you will see is Fisk Hall (1845 Sheridan Rd.; it’s a big red brick building). The McCormick Tribune Center (a white stone building with blue windows) is located directly behind Fisk Hall. The University parking ramp is located to the right of Fisk Hall.
